

Why are urban coyotes important? How can we prevent conflict? What is effective management?

These are just some of the questions that will be addressed during an informational program hosted by the City of Glendale, the Milwaukee County Parks Department, and the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources on April 26, 2017 at 6:00 PM at the Glendale City Hall, 5909 N. Milwaukee River Parkway.

Dianne Robinson, wildlife biologist with the WDNR will discuss urban coyote ecology, human coyote conflict and behavior modification, as well as proactive coyote management.
