On Thursday, May 28, 2020, Milwaukee County passed a resolution delaying interest and penalty on real estate tax payments. In order for the City of Glendale to offer this option to residents, the City must pass a similar resolution.

The resolution passed allows for any taxpayer that is unable to make a timely payment for the May 31, 2020, installment to not be charged interest and penalty until October 1, 2020.

Administrator Safstrom stated the total outstanding taxes as of 2 pm on May 28 is $1.47 million (313 property owners). This is both residential and business properties. We have had several residents calling to inquire if this would be an option.
